England's Historic Miser. John Camden Neild, whose magnifi-cent bequest to Queen Victoria sup-plied the funds out of which the prince consort built the present Balmoral castle, deserves a place among the great misers and was as remarkable a man as any of them. He was educated at Eton and Trinity college, Cambridge, and was a barrister at Lincoin's Inn. At the age of thirty-four his father's death placed him in possession of a fortune of £250,000, and from that moment he became a confirmed miser. Nelld lived at 5 Cheyne walk, Chelsen. His big house was so meanly furnished that it did not even boast of a bed. Two old women, who did his chores, and a black cat were his sole companions. When he visited his large estates in the Midlands, which he did frequently, he generally walked unless he could get a lift for nothing, and he was not even above taking a gratuitous seat on a dung cart. Sometimes he was compelled by the weather to take a seat on the stagecoach, and there he would att outside, shivering and dripping, for he never wore a greatcoat, an object of commiseration to his fellow passen-

Lincoln's Rebuke.

The saying that there are few honest lawyers did not hold true in the case of Lincoln. A man once called to retain him on a suit. "State your case," said honest Abe.

The man did, and then Lincoln said: "I cannot represent you, for you are wrong, and the other party is right." "That is none of your business if I mploy you," said the client.

"Pardon me," said the man who afterward became president; "my busiess is never to defend wrong. I never take a case that is manifestly

"Well, but you can make trouble for the other fellow."
"Yes," said Lincoln, "I can set a whole community at loggerheads, I can make trouble for this widow and her fatherless children and by so doing get you $600 that rightfully belongs to her, but I won't do It." "Not if I pay you well?" "Not for all the money you are worth," was the reply.

A Warrior Too.
The wooden boards that had marked the graves in a certain rural cemetery rotted off and were raked up in the spring cleaning. Consequently on Memorial day when the delegation from the G. A. R. arrived with flags and appropriate floral decorations for their departed comrades the decorating committee found itself somewhat in doubt as to which grave belonged to Captain Blodgett and which to Hannah Ericson. The mistaken dele gates heaped their offerings upon Hannah's last resting place and departed. That afternoon Ericson, the widower drifted, with the rest of his world, to Dickens was twenty-seven years old when, in 1839, he moved from Doughty street to Devonshire terrace. George du Maurier lived for some years in 1 Devonshire terrace. In this celebrated house Dickens wrote no fewer than ten of his books-"The Old Curiosity Shop," "Barnaby Rudge," "The Chris mas Carol," "American Notes," "Martin Chuzziewit," "The Haunted Man," "The Battle of Life," "Dombey and Son," "The Cricket on the Hearth" and "David Copperfield." Devonshire terrace was situated at the corner of the Marylebone road and used to be called the sanifest terrace in London.

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shrop's Restorative, and my Book on cither Dyspepsis, The Heart, or The Kidneys. Trouble of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptons only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the caus. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—meaos Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys, as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write me today for sample and free Book. Cured of Lung Trouble.

"It is now eleven years since I had a narrow escape from consumption," writes C. O. Floyd, a leading business man of Kershaw. S. C. "I had run down in weight to 135 pounds, and coughing was constant, both by day and by night. Finally I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and continued this for about six months, when my cough and lung trouble were entirely gone and I was restored to my normal weight, 170 pounds." Thousands of persons are hesled every year. Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store.
